The Privacy Act Statement

The information on this form is required for the purpose of providing a Privy Council Office security screening assessment. It is collected under the authority of subsection 7(1) of the Financial Administration Act and the Policy on Government Security (PGS) of the Government of Canada, and is protected by the provisions of the Privacy Act in institutions that are covered by the Privacy Act. Its collection is mandatory. A refusal to provide information will lead to a review of whether the person is eligible to hold the position or perform the contract that is associated with this security verification. Depending on the level of security screening required, the information collected by the government institution may be disclosed to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) and the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), which conduct the requisite checks and/or investigations in accordance with the PGS and to entities outside the federal government (e.g. credit bureaus). It is used to support decisions on individuals working or applying to work through appointment, assignment or contract, transfers or promotions. It may also be used in the context of updating, or reviewing for cause, the reliability status, security clearance or site access, all of which may lead to a re-assessment of the applicable type of security screening. Information collected by the government institution, and information gathered from the requisite checks and/or investigations, may be used to support decisions, which may lead to discipline and/or termination of employment or contractual agreements. The personal information collected is described in Standard PIS PSU 917 (Personnel Security Screening) which is used by all government institutions, except the Department of National Defence PIB DND/PPE 834 (Personnel Security Investigation File), RCMP PIB CMP PPU 065 (Security/Reliability Screening Records), CSIS PIB SIS PPE 815 (Employee Security), and PWGSC PIB PWGSC PPU 015 (Personnel Clearance and Reliability Records) used for Canadian Industry Personnel. Personal information related to security assessments is also described in the CSIS PIB SIS PPU 005 (Security Assessments/Advice).

I, the undersigned, do consent to the disclosure of the preceding information for its subsequent verification and/or use by the Privy Council Office in an investigation for the purpose of providing a security screening assessment. By consenting to the above, I acknowledge that the verification and/or use in an investigation of the preceding information may also occur when my reliability status, security clearance or site access are updated or otherwise reviewed for cause under the PGS. My consent will remain valid until I no longer require a reliability status, a security clearance or a site access clearance, until my employment or contract is terminated, or until I otherwise revoke my consent, in writing, to the authorized security official.
