Re: Resignation of Jonathan Ward

Dear Mr. Walker,

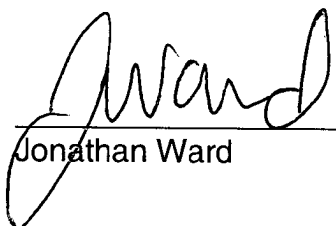

I am writing to inform you of my resignation from the National Research Council of Canada, effective 27 December 2012.

I have been appointed to a new position in the federal government, with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, an agency of Industry Canada, effective 28 December 2012.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to members of the Communications Branch and HR for their assistance during my assignment and now my transition to indeterminate with the core public service.

My time at NRC was invaluable and I wish you all the best for a successful CB reorganization and the broader NRC's evolution towards a more business-focused RTO.

Many thanks and best regards,

Jonathan Ward
